Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Greenfield Savings Bank

What we do

How does Greenfield Savings Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We also maintain other contractual, physical, electronic and procedural safeguards and we limit access to employees having a need to know.

How does Greenfield Savings Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or deposit money
- Pay your bills or apply for a loan
- Use your debit card

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. Please see "Other important information" below.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account — unless you tell us otherwise.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Greenfield Savings Bank has no affiliates.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Greenfield Savings Bank may share with nonaffiliates to market to you unless you opt out. Nonaffiliates we share with can include companies that we contract with to offer rewards programs related to our accounts.
